

HUMAN-NATURE INTERACTIONS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA: TRANS-DISCIPLINARY APPROACHES

The 37th Southeast Asia Seminar 2013

October 29-31, 2013, Universiti Sains Malaysia, Penang

Themes:

Managing Insects for Sustainable Humanosphere

Keywords; Insect pests, Agro-industrial plantations, Urbanization, Integrated pest management

J. Bong Choon Fah (UPM), Bong Lee Jin (USM), Neoh Kok-Boon (CSEAS)

Controlling Disease in Globalizing Southeast Asia

Keywords; Food safety, Mosquito-borne infections, Pandemic infectious disease

Son Radu (UPM), Nishibuchi Mitsuaki (CSEAS), Masuda Gaku (CSEAS)

Accommodating Human Activities with Environment

Keywords; Greenhouse gases, Biomass utilization, Water management in terrestrial ecosystems

Sudo Shigeto (NIAES), Foo Keng Yuen (USM), Mak Sithirith (RUPP)

*Opening remark; Ahmad Sofiman (USM), Shimizu Hiromu (CSEAS)

Further Info
& Application visit

CSEAS Website:
Southeast Asian Seminar's
content Page

<http://tinyurl.com/mg7ry4r>

CSEAS Website:

<http://www.cseas.kyoto-u.ac.jp/en/>

Organizers: Center for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS), Kyoto University and Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM)

Sponsors: MEXT Research Program "Southeast Asian Studies for Sustainable Humanosphere"

JSPS Asian Core Program "Constructing a Southeast Asian Model for Co-existence of Multiple Civilizations in the Global Era"