

Anomie in Asia Workshop (16-17 November 2013)

Moving Matters, University of Amsterdam, and CSEAS, Kyoto University

SATURDAY, 16 NOVEMBER 2013

09:30 – 10:00	OPENING and WELCOME
	Mario Rutten Moving Matters Research Group, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands Noboru Ishikawa Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University, Japan
10:00– 12:00	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Anomic Migration Chair and Discussant Hiromu Shimizu Kyoto University, Japan
10:00	'Escape control' and/or 'Out of control': Chinese Mining Communities (Kongsi) in the Malay Archipelago, 18th-19th centuries Ooi Keat Gin Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia
10:20	The "Urban Planning" of a Migratory Heterotopia in South Tel Aviv: The State as the Producer of "Controlled Anomie" Barak Kalir University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
10:40	Chinese in Madrid vs. Africans in Guangzhou: Seeing Immigrants' Survival Strategies from Alternative Ethnic Markets Li Minghuan Xiamen University, China
11:00	Discussant Remarks
11:20	Open Discussion
12:00-13:00	LUNCH
13:00-15:00	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Escape, Risk, and Chaos Chair and Discussant Caroline Hau Kyoto University, Japan
13:00	"Like Will to Like": Anomic Bonds between Laypeople and Hijras in Gujarat, India Akiko Kunihiro

Anomie in Asia Workshop (16-17 November 2013)

Moving Matters, University of Amsterdam, and CSEAS, Kyoto University

	Gunma Prefectural Women's University, Japan
13:20	Japanese Youth at the Brink of Anomie: A Plight for Resistance Strategies in an Anachronistic Society Rafael Munia Waseda University, Japan
13:40	Oplosan, Preman and Trek-trekan: Risktaking and State Control in Indonesia Gerben Nooteboom University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
14:00	Discussant Remarks
14:20	Open Discussion
15:00 – 15:30	TEA BREAK
15:30 - 17:30	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Violence, Ethnicity, Control Chair and Discussant Noboru Ishikawa Kyoto University, Japan
15:30	Anomic Regions? Anomic State Elites?: Rebellion in India, Pakistan and Bangladesh Willem van Schendel University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
15:50	Surviving the “Out of Control” Situation: Ethnic Violence and Domination in Bodo Areas in Assam, India Makiko Kimura Tsuda College, Japan
16:10	Technological Anomie?: Searching for “Society” through Bodies and/of the Law Itty Abraham National University of Singapore, Singapore
16:30	Discussant Remarks
16:50	Open Discussion
17:30	END of DAY ONE

Anomie in Asia Workshop (16-17 November 2013)

Moving Matters, University of Amsterdam, and CSEAS, Kyoto University

SUNDAY, 17 NOVEMBER 2013

10:00– 12:00	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Neoliberalism and the Middle Class Chair and Discussant Yoko Hayami Kyoto University, Japan
10:00	Resurging Religiosity and the New Middle Class in Neoliberal India Sankaran Krishna University of Hawai'i at Manoa, United States
10:20	"There is no Culture in the USA and Britain": Fear of Losing Family Cohesion in Gujarati Migrants Abroad Mario Rutten University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
10:40	A Single Bangle Makes No Sound: Anomie and Transition in Contemporary Kathmandu Tina Harris University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
11:00	Discussant Remarks
11:20	Open Discussion
12:00 - 13:00	LUNCH
13:00 - 15:00	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Anomic Development and Forests in Indonesia Chair and Discussant Mario Rutten University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
13:00	Anomalous Equilibrium?: Underutilization and Overexploitation of Forests in Japan and Southeast Asia Noboru Ishikawa and Mayumi Ishikawa Kyoto University and Osaka University, Japan
13:20	Anomie-ous Forest Societies and the Failure of the Communal Forestry Project Wil de Jong Kyoto University, Japan

Anomie in Asia Workshop (16-17 November 2013)

Moving Matters, University of Amsterdam, and CSEAS, Kyoto University

13:40	Unfaithful or Merely Flirtatious? Development Trajectories in Indonesia's Outer Provinces Laurens Bakker University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
14:00	Discussant Remarks
14:20	Open Discussion
15:00 – 15:30	TEA BREAK
15:30-17:30	PAPERS AND DISCUSSION
	Anomic Histories in Taiwan Chair and Discussant Akio Tanabe Kyoto University, Japan
15:30	Social Class and Social Anomy: The Impact Caused by Taiwan Social Cession to Japan on Merchant during the Initial Period of Taiwan's Occupation by Japanese Imperialism (1895-1897)——Focusing on Xu Zhi-Hu Family in lu-kang Zhang Hua County Huang Jun-Ling Xiamen University, China
15:50	Out of Control: The Registered Taiwanese in South China under Japanese Colonialism 1895-1945 Leo Douw University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
16:10	Discussant Remarks
16:20	Open Discussion
16:40	Next Steps Chair Barak Kalir University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands
17:30	END of DAY TWO