

International Workshop on
"Human Response to Disaster in Southeast Asia"

Date: January 14-15, 2019

Venue: Large Hall, 3rd Floor, Inamori Foundation Memorial building

Organized by Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University

Program for Jan.14

9:30-10:00	Registration at Kyoto University Inamori Building 3F Large Hall
OPENING SESSION / Moderator: Yoshimi NISHI
10:00-10:10	Opening	Yoko HAYAMI CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Welcome Speech
10:10-10:30	Opening	Hiroyuki YAMAMOTO CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Opening Remark
10:30-10:50	Speaker 1	Mohd Farid bin Mohd Shahrn IKIM, Malaysia	Human Dimension in Malaysian Flood Mitigation
10:50-11:10	Speaker 2	Enrique G. Oracion Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Silliman University, Philippine	Flood Disaster and Sense of Place of Riverside Rural Communities in the Philippines
11:10-11:30	Speaker 3	Nazli Ismail Graduate Program in Disaster Science, Syiah Kuala University, Indonesia	Local knowledge of the Singkil community in flood mitigation
11:30-12:00	Discussion
12:00-13:30	Lunch

SESSION 2 / Moderator: Mohd Farid bin Mohd Shahrn
13:30-13:50	Speaker 4	Kimberley Anh Thomas Temple University, USA / CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Looking backward to move forward: Historicizing climate disaster risk in Asia
13:50-14:10	Speaker 5	Im Sokrithy APSARA National Authority, Cambodia	Water: the national-wide worries and their preventions
14:10-14:30	Speaker 6	Sayaka HASHIMOTO Tokyo Zokei University, Japan	Naga, the river deity and beliefs related to water in Laos
14:30-14:50	Speaker 7	Yoshimi NISHI CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Natural Disasters in Indonesian Films
14:50-15:10	Speaker 8	Decha Tangseefa CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Before Disaster Struck: Community Engagement in a Postwar Border Region as Part of the Targeted Malaria Elimination (TME) in Karen/Kayin State, Myanmar
15:10-15:50	Discussion
15:50-16:10	Coffee break
SESSION 3 / Moderator: Enrique G. Oracion
16:10-16:30	Speaker 9	Norio MAKI DPRI, Kyoto University, Japan	How can we transfer our lessons of disaster to younger generation? Trials in Kobe.
16:30-16:50	Speaker 10	Michael D. Pante Ateneo de Manila University, Philippine	The History of Flood Control in Metro Manila
16:50-17:10	Speaker 11	Yuji TSUBOI Meio University, Japan	The perception of disaster of Malay Muslim intellectuals in Singapore during the 1950s and the 1960s
17:10-17:30	Speaker 12	Masashi HIROSUE Emeritus Professor, Rikkyo University/ The Oriental Library, Japan	The Malay Royal Chronicles Narrative Concerning Natural Disasters
17:30-18:10	Discussion
19:00-21:00	Networking Dinner

Program for Jan. 15

9:30-10:00	Registration at Kyoto University Inamori Building 3F Large Hall
SESSION 4 / Moderator: Nazli Ismail
10:00-10:20	Speaker 13	Kaori SHINOZAKI The University of Kitakyushu, Japan	Natural Disaster in Global Urban City: Landslides in Penang, Malaysia
10:20-10:40	Speaker 14	Azrina Sobian IKIM, Malaysia	Consumer Water Consumption and Drought in Malaysia.
10:40-11:00	Speaker 15	Agus Nugroho TDMRC, Syiah Kuala University, Indonesia	Willingness to Join in Flood Insurance: Evidence from Traditional Aceh Patchouli Oil Farming
11:00-11:20	Speaker 16	Nao SAKAGUCHI Tohoku University, Japan	The logic of the fishing village over the height of the seawall
11:20-12:00	Discussion
12:00-12:10	Closing	Hiroyuki YAMAMOTO CSEAS, Kyoto University, Japan	Closing Remark
12:20	Group Photo

東南アジア地域研究研究所
Center for Southeast Asian Studies
Kyoto University