Title

Ethiopian Higher Education Institutions: A Reflection from a Gender Perspective

The presentation attempts to give a general overview of Ethiopian higher education institutions from a gender perspective with special emphasis on Addis Ababa University. It reflects on the existing policy frameworks and institutional framework. It also highlights opportunities and challenges in ensuring gender equality in the Ethiopian higher education setting. I am going to introduce our recent interests of International joint research with Asian studies/scholars.

Organizer: The Center for African Area Studies,
The CSEAS Gender Equality Promotion Committee,
The Fieldworker Family Care Support Group/
Gender Equality Promotion Committee of ASAFAS
